THE DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH : A GLIMPSE

It cannot be ignored that English plays an important role in binding the whole of the nation to a thread and functions in a way what the (18)eighteen constitutionally recognized languages do. it is the language that opens the gate way of employability, opportunity and vision for the youth. we are using English which is to some extent different from the queen's language. in this given situation of using English, there is no harm, if the indian english could be considered one among the 18 languages recognized by the constitution. the department of enlish of m.h.d.m., chhatia, jajpur owes its origin to the very establishment of the college in 1978 when the college began with intermediate courses in arts after being affiliated to utkal university. when 10+2+3 pattern was adopted in the state by the government of odisha, intermediate courses were converted to +2 classes and subsequently degree classes were recognized and affiliated to the utkal university in 1986. as usual, both +2 and +3 classes of english have been taught as the compulsory subject. the department got its own identity when honours in english with 16 seats was recognized and affiliated from the session 1992-93. since then the department has established itself in a big way catering to the needs of the society and imparting quality education to the students. in conformity with the vision and mission of the college and the present society need, the department of english has moulded itself with positive aspirations to cope-up with the latest trend prevelant in the national and international level and need-based teaching of english. since the situation for employability demands a good command over the communicative skill of the students, the department has given priority to this. Both inside and outside of the class, students are encouraged for a good competence in communication skill. The department is proud to express that the result of English (Hons.) here is comparatively better than the result of English department in other Colleges. Our department has been performing wonderfully for some years in the past. To mention success percentage of students in English (Hons.), it has been 80 % in 2013, 70 % in 2014 and 80 % in 2015 respectively. The department of English, is proud to have very competent, efficient and committed teachers. Not only in curricular design but also in the extra-curricular activities, the members of the faculty are ahead of other departments in the College. The members of the faculty do have mastery over the subject and also interested in research and publications. Needless to say, this is one of the disciplined departments which has never failed in finishing the assigned courses in due time. There has been provisions for tutorial classes. All the staff members are assigned with proctorial classes, so that they can have the direct insight in to the problems of individual students and help them in solving out such problems. The staff members are dedicated to the right kind of counseling and consultancy so as to help the students find placement in different fields after passing out from the College. It will not be out of place to mention that since the beginning of the department, thousands of students have passed out from the College successfully and have established themselves in different fields across the country. In addition to counseling for placement, right kind of information is also imparted for self-employment and above all to be good citizens to meet the Challenges in different walks of life.

The department has come up a long way in the positive directions. Still then, there are miles and miles to be covered. There is no wrong in admitting that the college has some wants and requirements, but it will be an insult to the department, if we do not carry the vision, " if winter comes can spring be far behind ". The department witnessed both the qualitative and quantitative improvement in all fields. No doubt in the age of Odia medium being encouraged in the curriculum, English strives to maintain its existence. The students try to improve their poor standard of English. The department is hopeful to develop the basic standard of students learning English as a foreign language. The teachers give much stress on the skills of language study. However, the teachers' dedication and the students hard labour must carry this department to the top level of success.

CONCLUSION :

Taking stock the present day scenario of the job marketability, the necessity of capacity building among the students is indispensable. The situation demands that we must tune ourselves properly so as to reach the target of the students, so that after their education they will not find a gap between their hands and mind. Therefore, in order to acquaint the students with the use of functional English, the department has endeavoured a lot to develop in them, the genuine skills of reading, writing, comprehension, and speaking. A lot has been achieved in this direction but we have miles and miles to cover up in this direction.
